

HOW ACCEPT THE APPLICATIONS FOR FUNDING PROGRAMS >

INTERNATIONAL TRAUMA STUDIES PROGRAM

- about ITSP
- programs
- events
- publications
- staff
- media
- contact
- support us
- links
- photos

The International Trauma Studies Program is committed to enhancing resilience and coping capacities in individuals, families, and communities endured and/or are threatened by traumatic events - domestic and political war and natural disaster. ITSP pursues its mission through providing training, conducting innovative research, offering technical assistance to organizations, and helping build a global learning community in mental human rights.

news:

- The Liberians of Staten Island [New York Voices, WNYC]

- African Refuge - A program for African survivors of torture and refugee trauma
- Liberian asylum-seeker keeps memory of victims alive
- Psychologists & Torture

programs:

- Training Program in International Trauma Studies
- REFUGE: Refugee Community Resource Center
- International Collaborations
- Disaster preparedness and response
- Theater Arts Against Political Violence

students and alumni:

- PROJECTS: 2006
- Seeking Home: Accounts of [New York Times]

This site was designed by zoharworks © 200